Privacy Policy

Introduction

This privacy policy sets out how Eurosafe uses and protects any information that you give Eurosafe when you use this website. Eurosafe is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using the website, then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement. Eurosafe may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes.

1. What we collect

We may collect the following information:

1.1 Name
1.2 Contact information including email address
1.3 Demographic information such as postcode, preferences and interests
1.4 Other information relevant to customer surveys and/or offers.

2. What we do with the information we gather

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons:

2.1 Internal record keeping
2.2 We may use the information to improve our products and services.

3. Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

4. Controlling your personal information

You may choose to restrict the collection or use of your personal information in the following ways:

4.1 Whenever you are asked to fill in a form on the website, look for the box that you can click to indicate that you do not want the information to be used by anybody for direct marketing purposes.
4.2 If you have previously agreed to us using your personal information for direct marketing purposes, you may change your mind at any time by writing to or emailing us at the following addresses:
